Joint Operation Leads to Arrest of Man for Multiple Armed Robberies

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE: October 30, 2009

The East Baton Rouge Sheriff's Office, Baton Rouge Police and the U.S. Marshal's Service joined resources and apprehended KELVIN WRIGHT, 22, 5253 BANGOR DR, for a string of armed robberies committed within East Baton Rouge Parish since September.

The East Baton Rouge Sheriff Office charged Wright with four counts of Armed Robbery, three counts of Attempted Armed Robbery, Aggravated Battery and Home Invasion. In these cases, Wright allegedly approached the victims while they were outside and demanded money from them at gun point. One of the cases, Wright allegedly forced a woman into her apartment to demand money. Baton Rouge Police charged Wright with four counts Armed Robbery, Aggravated Burglary, Attempt Armed Robbery and Simple Robbery that were committed in the south Baton Rouge and Sherwood areas.

As a result of the joint investigation, detectives apprehended Wright in his home on Wednesday evening.
